

How to Become an Eventer Guide

To become an eventer, you need to INSERT ANSWER HERE .

Once you are accepted in the JrEventer role, you may work towards the Eventer title.

(It is recommended that you do this path with another player as to lessen the workload.)

JrEventer

JrEventer is a title that will be added to your name in-game. This is the start of your journey. Once you finish the steps, you will become an Eventer!

You begin in Stage One and progress through four stages.

Stage 1

To complete the requirements for stage one, you must watch an event that a LeadEventer hosts and see what process they use.

Stage 2

For stage two, you will host a racing event using the eventers' property. The eventers will help you every step of the way during this event, with at least the assistance of one LeadEventer.

Stage 3

For stage three, you host another event, this time picking between the following options: Barrel Racing, Pole Bending, or Jumping. You may use the Eventers' space for this event. For this event, you will plan it yourself, write your own applications, and choose your own prizes. If you have any questions, the eventers will be available to help! At least one LeadEventer will oversee it.

Stage 4

This is the last stage before becoming an Eventer. You can plan any Event desired, but must use your own Eventer space. You shouldn't need help, but the Eventers are always here to help! At least one LeadEventer will oversee this event.

Eventer Role

At this point, you will now gain the Eventer Role and will be able to host events for the server!
